MISS B ...., of I ......, sends us through our British Agents, Messre. F. NEWBERY & BONS, 27 and 28, Charterhouse Square, London, E. C., a strand of soft, glossy hair cut from her own head and measuring fifty-five inches in length, of which the annexed drawing is a plus-tographic fac-simile. She attributes her magnificenthead of hair to frequent shampoos with Currouna Boar, followed by light dressings of Corncons gently robbed into the scalp. Previous to the use of Currcums, her hairwas dry, thin, and lifeless, and came out in handfuls to such an extent that she feared she would lose soon it. . This is but one of many remarkable cases of the preservation and restoration of the hair in seemingly hopeless cases by warm shampoos with Cornound Scar, followed by light dressings of Curicuna, purest of emollient akin cures. This treatment at once stops falling hair, clears the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, soothes irritated, itching surfaces, stimulates the hair follicles, supplies the roots with energy and nourishment, and makes the hair grow on a clean, sweet, wholesome, healthy scalp, when all else fails.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN as Cuttours Soar exclusively for preserving purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleaning the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing rod, rough, and sore hands, and for all the purposes of the tollet, hath, and nursery.

Screembe Smith secred 18. The Garrison was strongly represented, and by good cricket put together 337 runs. Of this, Langhorne, R.A., who captained the team, scored 131, the result of excellent cricket. The captain, who has been a little down on his luck of late, played with confidence, and never gave the slightest show of a chance till he had scored 90. The other double figure scorers were-Dyson 44, Lumb 37, Dorehill 31, Preedy 26, Nicholson 16, Forsyth about to abandon further trials at that spot, three wickets being down for 39 (Lieut Noble and Mayhew 15 each). Sercombe brilliantly when he was given out leg-before uished without much difficulty, not, howto a high breaking ball that struck him on set for a long innings. Mast followed his of. example, and while Salter was content to keep his end up and punish a loose ball Most kept the field lively while he scored 35, being out to a catch at cover point from a miss-hit. At 3.15, the Club had lost half their wickets for 112, and had thus over 100 runs to make to avert the single-innings defeat.

Amusing Incident on Canton

A rather amusing incident is reported from the Canton River. The launches Nam Hing and Kong Soo (Chinese owned) left Hongkong on the evening of the 6th inst, at 5.30, for Kum Chuk up the Canton River. The Kong Soo was rather heavily laden and, in order to facilitate ing. her passage up the river, deviated from the usual course to get into deeper water. The crow of the Nam Hing, which was in front, suspected that pirates were on board the launch following, and, without stopping to satisfy themselves on the point, commenced to blaze away with all the cannon and rifles at hand. The Kong Soo, strange to say, had entertained a similar dread the Nam Wing, and responded vigorously, at the same time turning her head and steaming back in the direction of Hongkong. The Nam Hing followed in hot pursuit, and the firing continued till Hongkong Harbour was reached | Blightly wounded about three o'clock next morning. The Police, hearing the firing, put off in one of their launches, and intercepted the scared launches. The crown were surrounded by ammunition, and had a bewildered look. Explanations followed, in which there was a liberal flow of Chinese expletives, and the gestures at times were rather threatening, but the soothing influence of the limbs the law soon made matters right, and, with daylight, the launches resumed their journey, chastered in spirit if somewhat perturbed in mind.
